MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Secretary Brown, 30 June 1973

7. I delivered the paper on security leaks that I had given to the President. I told him that I would appreciate his suggestions on any other major items and on any special points to put in the President's talking paper. It was suggested that I'd ask the President to invite him to the meeting with the Congressional leadership. He suggested that we should add the Attorney General.

13. I mentioned our plan to go to a centralized compartmented clearances program for Congressional staff. The Secretary wasn't aware of this but thought it sounded good and would check if they had any problems with it.
